Profile Seminar “Topics in International Economics” (Bachelor) in the Winter term 2021/22
Curriculum/Requirements - B.Sc. Program

This seminar is eligible as a seminar module in the major (Profilfach) International Business and Economics and in the majors (Profilbereiche) International Business and Economics; Competition, Market Failure, and the Government (Wettbewerb, Marktversagen und Staat); and Empirical Economic Research (Empirische Wirtschaftsforschung).

Students are expected to have prior knowledge about international trade issues at the level of the course International Trade (Aufbaumodul International Business and Economics).

Credits: 6 LP (‘Leistungspunkte’)

Language: English

Objectives

The aim of this seminar is to gain a deeper understanding of important economic channels related to globalization. We revisit theoretical channels and discuss their empirical relevance. We do so by studying academic research papers.

Students learn how to work with academic research papers published by leading scholars in the field of International Trade. They gain experience in writing up scientific papers and in presenting their papers to a critical audience. Students acquire tools required to complete a Bachelor thesis under our supervision.

Assessment

To receive the credits, the following requirements have to be fulfilled: (i) presence in the seminar meetings, (ii) a one-page written proposal and a handout, (iii) a presentation, and (iv) a seminar paper. The final grade in the seminar will be based on the proposal, the presentation and participation in the seminar meeting, and the seminar paper. Students should demonstrate their ability to explain the topics in their own words and their understanding of the economics of the arguments.

Timing

There will be kick-off meetings at the beginning of the semester where we introduce you to the topic: October 22*, 2021 from 10am to 2pm, and October 29*, 2021 from 10am to 2pm. There will be a proposal session where students present their research questions and their agenda on November 26*, 2021 from 10 am to 2pm. Presentations of final papers will take place on January 21*, 2022 from 10am to 2pm. Final seminar papers and presentation slides will be due one week in advance. Attendance to all of these meetings is mandatory.

*: all dates are subject to the availability of rooms

Corona

We plan to run all seminar sessions on campus, subject to the University's Corona regulation.
